Getting Back to Business for Real This Time

This has certainly been a very interesting start to 2017! I hope everyone managed through the storms and evacuation with as little inconvenience as possible. All of you have been in my thoughts through this time of uncertainty and I look forward to getting back to business and into our normal school routine.

Mr. J. Williams

Math and Ten Marks

We have been working on Fractions and Decimals. This concept can be very difficult but the students have shown good understanding to this point. It will get more difficult as we move from decimals to fractions and I ask that parents please check in and look at what your student is doing. Their math work goes home nightly weather it is done or not. This is so they can complete assignments that they have not done so in class but also so parents are aware of what we are working on. Please ask to see their math and have them explain what they are doing. This will help them with understanding. In addition, Ten Marks is something they need to be doing as often as possible. Many students are not completing the assignments when they are assigned. I have reminded them that Ten Marks is worth 40% of their grade. If they say they don't have homework please have them work on Ten Marks. They do have time in class to work but working at home is encouraged and is helpful. As a reminder, there are video tutorials and hints to help with concepts they might have forgotten or need help with.

Change to Grading Period

Due to the cancellation of school last week the grading period will now end on March 3rd with report cards going home the following week. Due dates for assignments for both in class and Ten Marks has been extended until that date.
